

Conditions and procedures for accepting publications (PDF)

1. The Editorial Board accepts for publication original materials on the subject of the main headings of the journal distinguished by a high degree of scientific novelty, theoretical and practical significance, not presented in other publications yet.
2. The main scientific results of the research shall be presented in the article. Those who may be their authors include research scholars, doctoral students, post- and undergraduate students.
3. The author is responsible for the content of the article. The Editorial Board has the right to refuse the publication if it appears that someone's rights or generally accepted norms of scientific ethics have been violated by the author of the article. The Editorial Board is obliged to inform the author about the rejection.
4. Scientific articles made in strict compliance with the requirements for typescript preparation, are accepted for publication. Materials that do not meet the requirements are not accepted for consideration.
5. The Editorial Board reserves the right to allocate the articles to the main sections of the Journal, which correspond to branches of science and groups of specialties according to the Nomenclature of the specialties of scientific workers approved by the Act of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation as of February 25, 2009. Scientific articles are accepted throughout the year, and in case of positive results of the internal expertise (reviewing) they are included in the next issue of the journal in the order of receipt.
6. What is a prerequisite for inclusion of an article in the journal «Technologies & Quality» is getting a positive review from the Editorial Board experts who are recognised scientists in the field of the appropriate scientific knowledge.
7. The final decision on accepting a scientific article for publication is taken by the Editorial Board of the journal «Technologies & Quality». In case the author corrects critical remarks, the paper can be reviewed again by the reviewer and the Editorial Board, and, in case of a positive decision, the paper can be published in one of the following issues (in order to avoid a delay in periodicity).
8. The content of the journal is posted after the publication in free electronic access on the site of Elibary.ru; all issues of the journal in .pdf format are posted on the official site of Kostroma State University.
9. Articles are sent to the Editorial Board only in electronic form (E-mail: tik@ksu.edu.ru for Svetlana Gennad'yevna Smirnova). When emailing the Editorial Board, please fully indicate your name, patronymic (if any), last name, and indicate the subject of the letter.
